MARCH 2025

MESSAGE FROM YOUR PRESIDENT

Greetings Fellow Knights,
As we head into March we see Spring quickly approaching. For us it just means more beautiful weather, however our time of dry cooler days are quickly expiring. Come out this month and take advantage of this great riding weather. Air up the tires and blow off the dust. Lets Ride!

Our Thunder By The Bay weekend was very rewarding not only with the profits made by our raffle but the time we spent at the Haven during our ride for charity. It was amazing to pull into the campus and see all the kids with signs and the band rocking out. All the riders were taken back by all the love and enthusiasm. The Haven also had a special dedication of a play area in the name of our brother Rory MacConnell who transferred to Heaven one.

Rory MacConnell was dedicated and passionate about raising funds for children especially all the children who benefit from the Suncoast Charities for Children. Everyone Rory worked with throughout the years loved his energy and attitude when it came to raising money. The few rides that have been dedicated in his name and this village play area are testaments of how much he was loved and respected in the community.

As Blue Knights we all could learn from the dedication Rory had for this club, chapter, each member, and the community. If it needed to be done Rory would do it no questions or excuses. Ride on in Heaven one Brother you are truly missed.

Ride with Pride
Patrick Gibbons
President, FLXVIII

You Cannot Eat Cottage Cheese After 6pm on Sundays

Sometimes it is hard to comprehend the purpose of laws when you read them. This Tampa Bay law is one of the weird Florida laws that makes us wonder who exactly oversees making these laws? What do they have against cottage cheese?

What if you are from Wisconsin, are you exempt?

"Wear with Pride"

"Ride with Pride" is a common phrase amongst those that enjoy the depths of wind on their face while cruising with their uniquely personalized motorcycles...a population of only three percent of the registered vehicles in the United States. Pride is also synonymous with dignity and honor, words that carry significant meaning, but unfortunately, are often merely a punch line in a comment or an unfastened thought completely void of action.

The Blue Knights are representatives of "pride" in the motorcycling community of Law Enforcement and Corrections professionals. However, there is much more to it than representation. The Blue Knights motif also honors the sacrifices of those working as protectors of a society in less than favorable and certainly volatile environments. Conditions that create sleepless nights, traumatic reminders, stressors, and medical issues, just to name a few.

So, with the Blue Knights we become fierce representatives of honor, not by words but actions that remind us of the very fabric stitched to create this symbolic protector, a Knight, bonded by the last breath of those before us. We are commissioned to honor those that have worn or currently wear that shield, the sheepdogs, and we should do that by not tarnishing it with unnecessary privileges.

When we drape these honorable colors across our shoulders, we must assume the duty and responsibility for all that it represents and act accordingly. We cannot assume it is an entitlement for grossly violating laws and taking unnecessary risks. We should be an example for all others to aspire. We want others to look at that symbol with enthusiasm to be involved rather than be alarmed by an action they observed. To do otherwise would truly misjudge the purpose of the membership. Our phrase should not only include "ride with pride" but also "wear with pride." Everything we do and how we act is reflective of this distinguished group and those before us.

MARCH 2025

With the conclusion of the Thunder by the Bay, our Blue Knights team, spent time and brotherhood working to raise money to benefit the less unfortunate children in our community. The following article emphasizes the love of Jesus for our Children.

Jesus and Children: A Relationship of Love and Blessing

Jesus Christ, revered as the Son of God and a beacon of divine love, has a profound and tender relationship with children. His teachings and interactions with them reveal His deep affection and high regard for the innocence and purity they embody. Jesus' approach to children is a testament to His inclusive and compassionate nature, emphasizing their importance in the Kingdom of God.

One of the most poignant moments in the Gospels that highlights Jesus' relationship with children is found in Mark 10:13-16. When people brought their children to Jesus to be blessed, the disciples initially rebuked them. However, Jesus' response was clear and decisive: "Let the little children come to me, and do not hinder them, for the kingdom of God belongs to such as these. Truly I tell you, anyone who will not receive the kingdom of God like a little child will never enter it." He then took the children in His arms, placed His hands on them, and blessed them. This act underscores Jesus' recognition of the inherent value and purity of children, encouraging believers to adopt a childlike faith.

In Matthew 18:1-5, Jesus further emphasizes the significance of children by teaching His disciples a powerful lesson in humility and greatness. When asked who is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven, Jesus called a little child to Him and said, "Truly I tell you, unless you change and become like little children, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven. Therefore, whoever takes the lowly position of this child is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven. And whoever welcomes one such child in my name welcomes me." Through this teaching, Jesus illustrates that the qualities of humility, innocence, and dependence found in children are essential for spiritual growth and entry into the kingdom of heaven.

Moreover, Jesus' interactions with children are marked by His gentle and nurturing demeanor. He healed children, such as Jairus' daughter (Mark 5:41-42) and the demon-possessed boy (Mark 9:25-27), demonstrating His deep care and compassion for their well-being. These miracles serve as reminders of Jesus' power to bring healing and restoration to the lives of children, offering hope and comfort to families.

Jesus' love for children and His teachings about them continue to inspire and guide believers. By valuing and embracing the qualities of children, followers of Jesus are encouraged to cultivate a spirit of humility, trust, and openness. The relationship between Jesus and children is a beautiful reflection of divine love and serves as a timeless reminder of the importance of nurturing and cherishing the youngest members of society.

When Clinton visited the Pope, he noticed a red phone on a small table in the corner of the office.

After several minutes of conversation, Clinton asked the Pope what the red phone was.

The Holy Father told him that it was a very special phone with a direct line to God. However, the Pope told Clinton he rarely used it because it cost $20,000 a minute from the Vatican.

Clinton accepted this explanation without another thought.

Later, when Clinton visited Ireland, he saw another red phone in the Archbishop's office. Being curious, Clinton asked the Archbishop what it was used for.

The Archbishop told Clinton it was a direct line to God, and he used it whenever he had a puzzling question or concern.

Clinton asked if the calls were quite expensive since the Pope had to pay $20,000 a minute when he used his red phone in the Vatican.

Irishman went to a pet shop and asked how many budgies were in stock. "We have 99" replied the shop owner "Give us the lot" said the Irish man, paid for them and left. He went to a tailors shop and had 99 pockets sewn into a jacket, put a budgie in each pocket, went up to the Post Office Tower and jumped off. He hit the ground with an almighty smack and lay there groaning until a passer-by came and asked him what had happened.
